The above-identified patent application became abandoned unintentionally. The application in question was included amongst a file transfer of several hundred files from the previous owner Honeywell International, Inc. to the attorneys of record. During the transfer the Notice of Allowance was sent to the previous owner as evidenced by the address indicated on the Notice of Allowance referenced in Exhibit A. However, the Notice of Allowance was misplaced and not discovered by the attorney of record until after the due date for payment of the issue fee. As soon as the error was discovered the attorney of record filed a Petition to Revive the application along with payment of the issue fee attached as Exhibit B to rectify the situation. In view of the foregoing, applicant respectfully requests that this Petition to Revive an Unintentionally Abandoned Application be granted.

Dated this 19th day of July, 2004.

Respectfully submitted,
